Explanatory Statement

This explanatory statement relates to the notice of Annual General Meeting dated 12th September 2011.

Item 2: Remuneration Report

The Board submits its Remuneration Report to shareholders for consideration and adoption by way of non-binding resolution.

The Remuneration Report is set out in the Directors' Report in the 2011 Annual Report:

This resolution is advisory only and does not bind the Directors of the Company. However, under changes to the Corporations Act which came into effect on 1 July 2011, if at least 25% of the votes cast on the resolution are voted against adoption of the Remuneration Report at the meeting, and then again at the 2012 AGM, the Company will be required to put to Shareholders a resolution proposing the calling of an extraordinary general meeting to consider the appointment of directors of the Company (spill resolution). If more than 50% of shareholders vote in favour of the spill resolution, the Company must convene the extraordinary general meeting (spill meeting) within 90 days of the 2012 AGM. All of the Directors who were in office when the 2012 Directors' Report was approved, other than a Managing Director, will cease to hold office immediately before the end of the spill meeting but may stand for re-election at the spill meeting.

Following the spill meeting those persons whose election or re-election as Directors is approved will be the Directors of the Company.

Item 4: Election of Ms G Roux as a director

Ms Giselle Roux was appointed a director of the Company on 1 September 2011 and in accordance with the Company's Constitution and the Corporations Act offers herself for election at the Annual General Meeting on 13 October 2011.

Ms Roux holds a Bachelor of Commerce and Economics (Honours) and a Bachelor of Geology from the University of Cape Town, South Africa.

Since 2007 she has been Managing Director, Chief Investment Officer of J B Were with specific responsibility for managing Australian and international equity portfolios.

Formerly she held roles in strategy and business development at the Coles Group, and in equity analysis at Citigroup, MacIntosh Securities and Merrill Lynch.

Directors other than Ms Roux unanimously recommend that shareholders vote in favour of her election.

Item 5: Constitution

Since the adoption by the Company of its current Constitution in 2001, the Corporations Act has been extensively amended, most recently by the Corporations Amendment (Improving Accountability on Director and Executive Remuneration) Act 2011.

The Directors therefore consider it timely for the Company to adopt a new constitution, incorporating amendments to reflect legislative changes since 2001 and reflecting current good corporate governance practice, in substitution for the Company's current constitution. A copy of the new constitution is available for inspection by shareholders at the Company's registered office.

The changes in the proposed new constitution do not alter the rights of shareholders as regards transferability of shares, voting at shareholders' meetings, dividends and return of capital. The following table outlines the more significant changes.

Subject	Reference in current constitution	Reference in proposed replacement constitution	Comments
Share capital and variation of rights	Part 2	Clauses 4 – 12	A clause has been included to set out a process for the sale of small (non-marketable) shareholdings.
General meetings	Part 8	Clauses 35 – 37	The replacement includes information required by the Corporations Amendment (Improving Accountability on Director and Executive Remuneration) Act 2011 relating to approving remuneration reports, spill resolutions and spill meetings. In addition, the quorum for a general meeting has been changed to three (from five) to reflect current practice.
Proceedings at general meetings	Part 9	Clauses 38 – 57	The replacement is more comprehensive, for example specifying the right of the auditor to be heard at the meeting, however it still incorporates aspects from the current constitution so that the proceedings at general meetings will be consistent with past practice. Importantly, the replacement also specifies the changes required by the Corporations Amendment (Improving Accountability on Director and Executive Remuneration) Act 2011 in relation to proxy appointments.
The Directors	Part 10	Clauses 58 – 69	The replacement includes greater detail and includes changes required by the Corporations Amendment (Improving Accountability on Director and Executive Remuneration) Act 2011 which no longer allow the Board to reduce the maximum number of Directors.
Dividends and reserves	Part 16	Clauses 93 – 105	The replacement provides that dividends may be paid other than out of profits, to reflect recent amendments to the Corporations Act, and to allow dividends to be paid via EFT.
Notices	Part 18	Clauses 107 – 108	The replacement allows notices to be serviced electronically (eg by email).
Indemnity and insurance	Part 21	Clauses 111 – 112	The replacement reflects the proposed scope of the indemnity deed.

A copy of the Constitution is available on request by contacting the Company. Copies will also be made available at the Meeting.

The Board unanimously recommends that shareholders vote in favour of adopting the new Constitution.

Renewal of proportional takeover approval provisions:

The constitution of the Company contains a requirement that shareholder approval be obtained prior to proceeding with any proportional takeovers (the Proportional Takeover Provisions).

In accordance with the Corporations Act, the Proportional Takeover Provisions cease to have effect on the third anniversary of their adoption unless renewed. At the Company's annual general meeting on 15 October 2008, those provisions were renewed for a further period three years, and they will lapse on 15 October 2011 unless renewed by the adoption of the new Constitution in which they appear as clause 29.

1. Effect of proposed proportional takeover provisions

The effect of the proposed provisions is that:

- (a) if a proportional takeover offer is received, the Directors are required to convene a general meeting of shareholders to vote on a resolution to approve the offer or conduct a postal ballot to approve the offer. That meeting must be held at least 15 days before the offer closes;
- (b) a majority of shares voting in favour at the meeting, excluding the shares of the offeror and its associates, is required for the resolution to be passed;
- (c) if no resolution is voted on at least 15 days before the close of the offer, such a resolution is deemed to have been approved;
- (d) if the resolution is rejected, the registration of any transfer of shares resulting from the proportional offer will be prohibited and, under the Corporations Act, the offer will be ineffective; and
- (e) if the resolution is approved, the relevant transfers of shares will be registered provided they comply with the other provisions of the Constitution.

The provisions will not apply to full takeover offers. If the provisions are adopted, they will expire in accordance with the Corporations Act in three (3) years time unless renewed by further special resolution.

2. Differences between Part 5 in current Constitution and clause 29 in new Constitution

There are no material differences between Part 5 of the existing constitution and clause 29 of the proposed constitution.

3. Reasons for proposing the resolution

The Board considers that shareholders should have the opportunity to decide whether a proposed proportional takeover offer should proceed by voting upon it. If it does proceed, individual shareholders can make a separate decision as to whether they wish to accept the offer.

A proportional takeover bid for the Company may enable control of the Company to be acquired by a party holding less than a majority position and without shareholders having the opportunity to dispose of all of their shares, so that shareholders could be at risk of being left as part of a minority interest in the Company. If the Constitution includes these proportional takeover provisions, it will minimise the risk to shareholders.

4. Present acquisition proposals

As at the date of this Notice, no Director is aware of any proposal by a person to acquire, or increase the extent of, a substantial interest in the Company.

5. Review of the previous proportional takeover provisions

There has not been any proportional takeover bid during the period that the provisions were in effect previously.

6. Potential advantages of the proportional takeover approval provisions for the Directors and shareholders

- (a) Enables the Board to formally ascertain the views of shareholders in respect of a proportional takeover offer.
- (b) Ensures that shareholders will have an opportunity to study a proportional takeover offer and vote on whether the offer should be permitted to proceed.
- (c) Enables shareholders to prevent a proportional takeover bid from proceeding if they believe that control of the Company should not be permitted to pass under the bid.
- (d) May encourage a proportional bid to be structured so as to be attractive to a majority of independent shareholders.

7. Potential disadvantages of the proportional takeover provisions for the Directors and shareholders

- (a) May discourage proportional takeover bids for the Company.
- (b) May as a result reduce any 'takeover speculation' element in the Company's share price or deny shareholders the opportunity of selling some of their shares at a premium.
- (c) May restrict the ability of individual shareholders to deal freely with their shares in some circumstances.

8. Recommendation

The Board considers that it is in the interest of shareholders to have a continuing right to decide if any proportional takeover should proceed and recommends you vote in favour of the renewal of the proportional takeover provisions by adoption of the Constitution at the Annual General Meeting.

Item 6: Deed of Access Insurance and Indemnity

The Company has previously entered into a Deed of Access, Insurance and Indemnity with each director and now considers it timely to update the form of the Deed for current practice, Corporations Law amendments and the new Constitution. Consistent with the principles of good corporate governance the directors have resolved to seek shareholder approval in relation to the proposed entry by the Company into the new Deed of Access, Indemnity and Insurance with each of the present and future directors of the Company.

The key differences between the existing Deed of Indemnity and the proposed Deed of Access, Indemnity and Insurance; and the primary features of the Deed are as follows:

(a) Indemnity

As is usual in these deeds, both the current and replacement deeds exclude from the indemnity any amount the director is entitled to recover from a third party or under an insurance policy other than the Director & Officer Policy taken out by the Company. However the replacement deed also provides that the Company indemnifies the Director if the third party or insurer does not pay the Director within 60 Business Days provided the Director has used all reasonable efforts to make and pursue claim under the insurance policy or indemnity from the third party indemnifier or insurer.

The current deed requires obligations to be performed within 30 days (eg. the Company must pay under the indemnity 30 days after Director providing sufficient proof of entitlement). This has been changed in the replacement to 10 Business Days.

(b) Access to documents

The proposed replacement deed allows Directors to access and copy Company documents, however the current deed only contemplates access to the documents or the Company providing a copy (and not both).

The proposed replacement deed allows the Company to refuse access or provide restricted access to privileged documents or those that risk the Company breaching an obligation of confidence owed to a third party.

(c) Conduct of claims

The replacement requires the Company to:

- (i) consult with Director about material decisions relating to a Claim (unless impracticable);
- (ii) keep the Director informed and consider the Director's interests and reasonable requests; and
- (iii) provide the proposed terms of settlement to the Director and the circumstances in which the Director may assume control of the Claim if the settlement terms are not satisfactory to the Director.

The replacement requires the Director, if the Company (or its insurer) has not assumed control of the Claim, to keep the Company informed of developments relating to the Claim.

(d) Insurance

The current deed exempts the Company from obtaining cover where cover for defending criminal proceedings in the case of the Director not being acquitted is unavailable. The replacement deed does not specifically include this exclusion but limits the Company's obligation to insure the director to the extent such cover is available in the market at reasonable cost.

A copy of the Deed of Access, Indemnity and Insurance is available on request by contacting the Company. Copies will also be made available at the Meeting.

Although section 191(2)(a)(vi) of the Corporations Act provides that Directors do not necessarily hold an interest in a matter relating to contracts of insurance, the Board is of the view that each Director has a material personal interest in the consideration of the other matters contained in the Deed (ie the indemnity and access to documents) and, therefore, the directors consider it is not appropriate for them to give a recommendation in respect of this resolution.
